KALEIDOSCOPE

We dedicate the 1979 Kaleidoscope yearbook to those who helped to add color to the school.

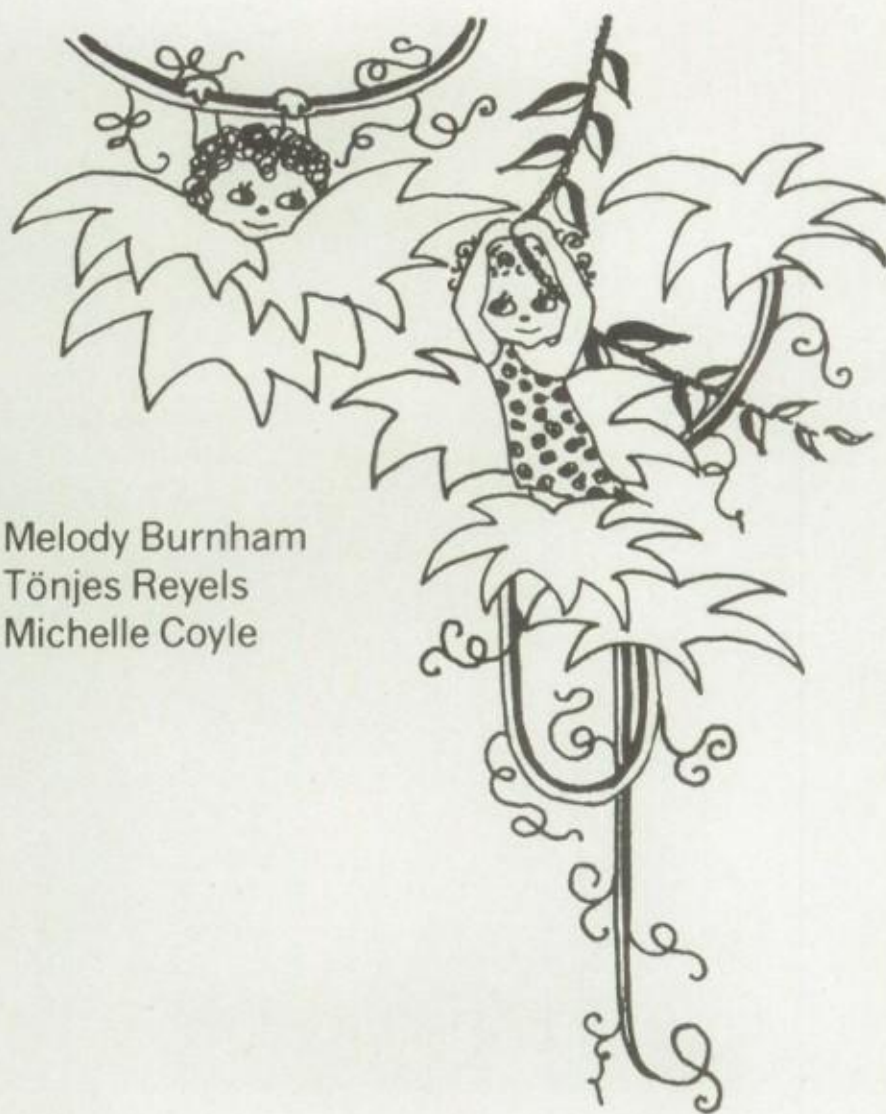

First to the students who blended together and created a unique school atmosphere. Secondly to the staff whose rainbow of knowledge both enlightened and darkened our perspective towards life and the future. We would especially like to focus on Ms. Sandra Roth, our sincere thanks.

To know the joy of living is to know life's worthwhile things!
The satisfaction of work well done . . .
The joy that friendship brings . . .
Courage after doubting . . .
Understanding after sorrow . . .
Learning from our yesterdays and looking towards tomorrow. It's counting up a lifetime not by the years we've spent but by our store of memories and by our heart's content.

I must learn to listen to love to feel to live to tolerate to express,
for existence being, but giving!

I may speak with tongues of men or of angels, but if I am without love, I am a sounding gong, or a changing cymbal. I may have the gift of prophecy, and know every hidden truth; I may have faith strong enough to move mountains; but if I have no love, I am nothing. I may dole out all I possess, or even give my body to be burnt, but if I have no love, I am none the better

Love is patient; love is kind and envies no one. Love is never boastful, nor conceited, nor rude; never selfish, not quick to take offense. Love keeps no score of wrongs; does not gloat over other men's sins, but delights in the truth. There is nothing love cannot face, there is no limit to its faith, its hope, its endurance.

And the time will come when you see we're all one,
And life flows on within you and without you."

George Harrison, 1967

We were talking about the love that's gone so cold and the people, who gain the world and lose their soul
they don't know — they can't see —
Are you one of them?

NAOMI HIZAK

Jerusalem, Israel

Sunrise, sunset,
Sunrise, sunset,
Swiftly flow the days.
Seedlings turn overnight to sunflowers
Blossoming even as we gaze.

I used to tell myself
That I had everything,
But that was only half true.
Now I have an aim in life,
And that is everything.

I have something that I would die for,
Something that I can live for, too.
Yes, now I have everything,
Not only everything,
I have a little bit more.
Besides having everything,
I know what everything's for.

Don't walk behind me
I may not lead.
Just walk beside me and be my

Too swift for those who fear
Too long for those who grieve
Too short for those who rejoice
But for those who think
Time is experience.

THE SHAPERS

YEARBOOK STAFF

'Twas the day before deadline
And all was not right,
Not a creature was stirring,
Not even a mite
We editors screamed
At the top of our lungs,
"Sponsor! Dear Sponsor!
What can be done?
We can't find the pictures,
The photographers are gone,
The dark room is flooded —
This just can't go on!"
Late into the night
We worked (until day),
Got the annual finished
And sent it away.

The editors of the 1978-1979

Kaleidoscope Yearbook would like to give a special thanks to the following people:

- General and Mrs. Bissell for the food and shelter during rush week.
- Mr. and Mrs. Inlender, and Tracy for putting up with us and answering all the questions.
- Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery for the hours spent driving from Jerusalem to Herzlia.
- Tova Bode for her talents in writing.
- David McPherson and Kevin Tuohey for spending long hours in the dark room.
- Mike Geron for helping with the pictures during rush week.
- Arik Pollak for patience holding the camera, and the use of the Peugeot.
- Mrs. Lyons' wake-up service. Jon hopes for room service next year.
- Mr. Millman's advice, help and pictures.
- Mr. Broman for the extension of the deadline because of his flight.
- The teachers for reluctantly setting us free to create both in and out of school.
- David Scheiman for waiting up nights until the photographers finished in the dark room.
- Byshanete for entertainment.

Without these people the yearbook would not have been possible.

We have shared laborious days
Shared the pleasantness of praise
Brother not more close to brother
We have cheered and helped each other
Till so far the fields of each
Into the other's stretch and reach
That perchance when both are gone
Neither may be named alone

“There are four types among them that sit in the presence of the Sages: the sponge, the funnel, the strainer and the sifter. ‘The sponge’ — which soaks up everything; ‘the funnel’ — which takes in at this end and lets out at the other; ‘the strainer’ — which lets out the wine and collects the dregs; ‘the sifter’ — which extracts the chaff and collects the fine flour.”

When you, in turns, express similar sentiments to members of future graduation classes, you may hope, as ardently as we, that they will comprehend and benefit from the experiences and images you try to pass on to them.

To all the graduates who came from everywhere . . .

"And perhaps it was only a dream after all
And perhaps
I never really went forth with the dawn to toil with the sweat of my brow

Can it be on those flaming and endless days
when we reaped, that I never gave voice to a song as I rode on a cartful of sheaves high-heaped

That I never did bathe in the perfect and placid blue gleam
of Kinnereth, my sea, ah Kinnereth, my own,
were you real, then, or only a dream"

God speed —

The A.I.S. Eagles, boys and girls basketball teams, would like to express their great appreciation to MSgt. and Mrs. Richard Hegwood for providing transportation, and being our most devoted fans for the last three seasons. We also wish them the best of luck at their new post. The seasons to come will not be the same without them.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1979

It gives me great pleasure to extend to you my warmest congratulations upon the successful completion of your studies at the Walworth Barbour American International School.

During the past year you have had a unique opportunity to watch and experience at first hand the unfolding of events which will shape the future of this country, this region, and of many other parts of the world. With your teachers, your classmates, and friends you have discovered a people and a land both ancient and brand new.

It is my personal wish that, in the years ahead, the same sense of excitement and the same high hopes and expectations will remain with you in your personal endeavors, your professional achievements, and your contributions to the community in which you live.

Sincerely,

DEFENSE ATTACHE OFFICE

The world needs more men and women who do not have a price at which they can be bought; who do not borrow from integrity to pay for expediency; who are not afraid of risk; who have opinions instead of prejudices; who are honest in small matters as they are in large ones; whose ambitions are big enough to include others; who know how to win with grace and lost with dignity; who do not believe that shrewdness and cunning and ruthlessness are the three keys to success; who still have friends they made in high school; who are not afraid to go against the grain of popular opinion; who are occasionally wrong and always willing to admit it.

SUMMER PLACES

IT TAKES A LOT

You couldn't ask for more

Curt

We had some really good times together and it was fun having a little brother. We haven't had any serious arguments yet and that's good. Remember times in LA, my house, the chicks and the school. We are the coolest the best and the baddest in our dreams. I'll see you in the State (maybe go back with you)

Some day I'll be famous and your friends will pay to see me and you will get in free. Don't suck on guitar and I hope you are an excellent time racing. You better be rid of your damn blue-balls when I see you in the State. Don't ever forget Kathy and Michelle even if you were forced into it (you still had a good time)

Curt,
Hello, I hope you've enjoyed the year beside me. Health, History, English, & Science. Maybe you will come back to see David in uniform life of a soldier. Well, enjoy life of a soldier & don't die of cancer. Good Luck p.s. I was expecting you to say something about David's comments.

Smile

Curt,

Since you didn't write ~~as~~ much in my yearbook, I'll be or do just the opposite. So, Mr Blue Balls himself!!! The beginning of this year was great & you seemed really nice, but toward the middle you turned into a real Jackass! Why why why?? Well it's over but I guess I could never get it out of my mind. Now it's a different story, your probably one of the nicest guy I know or will ever know. ~~You~~ I would never guess you would be the shy type but I guess everyone puts on a act. It's so hard to believe what you say, when you say "I'm crazy about you" and then your nice one day & speechless the next day, but I guess that's you. your big question huh, well one day you and I will go out in the "boonies" & have a blast being "blasted", you really made the last couple of months worth going to school. We've had pretty good times, which I'll never forget, "Science", "Boonies", "The beach", "Austin" ah your bad for my blood pressure - "Blue balls" "health". you gave me great advice the night at Rich's, and it seems it turned →
